

THE AMRITSAR MASSACRE

The 13, April 1919 , woman and children were protesting against the leader of the National Congress. It was a peaceful protest

What happened?

The general Dyer arrived at the place of the protest with the Indian army, without any kind of warning

Also in Today's Paper

The general Dyer without any official order, tell his soldier to shoot at the people

The Army shoot at the people and kill a lot of them.

During this massacre a lot of woman and children die! And this massacre became a sign in the history of India

Trial

After this terrible massacre a lot of people in the world thought that the general dyer was guilty. And infact they made a trial were he was never found guilty because he die in the 23,1927.

