

INTERVIEW WITH CHANCELLOR SPAHN

REFLECTION

I was a little nervous and excited because it was my first interview and he liked it too so it was fun.

1. As chancellor, what do you do?

My job is to make sure your spark of genius is able to be developed. My job is to make sure students are able to follow of their passions.

2. Did you want to be a chancellor when a kid?

you were My father had the same position that I have. he was very happy working with children so I thought what could be better than working with young minds. So did I always want to be a chancellor, yes.

What are the best qualities you need to be a good leader?

You need to be observant have an open mind.

Who inspired you to be a leader?

I had some great teachers. One of the was the founder of the IB at Oxford University, Alec Peterson. He was the head of the Education Department.

What's the hardest part about your job?

Planning. Who do you think planned the new music room? It was me! and it took a long time over the summer. I had to work with the artists and designers. It took a lot of work for it to be ready when you came back to school. You went away and there it is! I have to plan all of the things that go on.

Would you change your job if you could?

I would not change it for one minute, I love what I do.

Do you have any advice for a student who wants to be a leader?

Yes, a leader has to always look to the stars. And a leader should always have a dream. If you have a dream, a leader is somebody who never gives up. They stay with it, no matter what anybody says. that's what makes a leader, It's a person that says I want to get to a certain Do you have any advice for a student who wants to be a leader?

Yes, a leader has to always look to the stars. And a leader should always have a dream. If you have a dream, a leader is somebody who never gives up. They stay with it, no matter what anybody says. that's what makes a leader, It's a person that says I want to get to a certain place.

