

Aloi was a normal kid like everyone else. He likes to play soccer and game. One day he failed on his test. When he got back to home he got a lot of trouble. His parents are really strict and they care about grades a lot. He got kicked out from house. At 2am he was walking on the river side. It was a raining day. He got stuck by lightning. When he woke up he was in hospital and doctor said he will be fine and he can go back home in 6 days.

After a month when he was taking a shower something impossible happened. Water started flying on air. After that more stuff happened. When he tried to reach water bottle, bottle just flew on air also once when he was walking down the street ground started shaking and made a big hole in front of him. Next day he found out that he is not only one who has a power. He did not go anywhere for a week because he was scared that he is going to hurt anyone. Someone rang the bell on his house. He opened the door and he saw FBI. FBI told him what is going on and asked for help. They told him that the guy named Mak is destroying public places in New York City and stealing stuff. He decided to use his power to protect citizens in New York City.

He went outside and he was surprised because it was a lot of different than a week ago. A lot of buildings were burning. He saw Mak trying to blow up Empire State Building. He flew up there and grabbed him and threw him to ground. Aloi and Mak started fighting. They used their power to destroy each other. Finally Aloi won the battle. He took Mak's power away. People were cheering for Aloi but some people were not. He looked around and a lot was building was destroyed. A lot of building was gone and it looked like a battlefield. People were mad at him because they lost their family and their home because of him. He did not know what to do.

Next day he decide to use his power to create a park in middle of new york city. He use his natural power to move rock and other thing out of city. He plant trees and he rode a water to park. He made a hole and dump the water. Everyday he worked really hard. After a month park was finished but did not had a enough trees. People went outside to plant the flower and trees because of people help park was finished. He felt guilty because of thing that he did and he decided to leave the city. He packed stuff he need and he fly to west.
