

Food Idioms

| | | |
|---|--|---|
| Piece of cake Meaning: something really easy |  | My math test was a piece of cake. |
| Bring home the bacon Meaning: to bring home money earned at a job. | BRINGING HOME THE BACON  | I need find a job and bring home the bacon. |
| To go bananas Meaning: to become very angry or very excited |  | The monkey was to go bananas when a person take aways his bananas. |
| Have bigger fish to fry Meaning: have more important things to do. |  | I have bigger fish to fry, I can help you after this. |

| | | |
|---|--|--|
| That's the way the cookie crumbles Meaning: something that you say which means that bad things sometimes happen and there is nothing you can do to prevent it, so it is not worth becoming upset about it |  | |
| Walk on eggshells Meaning: be extremely cautious about one's words or actions. |  | I walk to my mom's bedroom like walk on eggshells. |
| Hard nut to crack Meaning: a difficult problem to solve |  | This math problem was hard nut to crack, but I love it! |
| Chinese Idiom: Fishing the moon in sea Meaning: a impossible thing |  | "No! You can't do that, you're fishing the moon in sea! |