Summary

The day it all started was New Year's day. Sam got four lucky dollars. He was so happy because his mother said to him that he can spend it however he want.

First they went to the grocery store. When he almost bought a fish cookies, he heard the China Lion. he ran out of the grocery store and went to see him.

After he saw a lion dance he suddenly saw a new opened toy store. He ran in there.

He saw many toys. But then he realized that he could not buy any of them. He was very upset.

He went outside. He saw a man with bare feet. He was very confused because there was the winter. He gave him that four dollars.
